

KITCHEN CABINETRY TO FIT EVERY BUDGET AND EVERY LIFESTYLE...

KraftMaid

At KraftMaid, style meets function to create beautiful, quality cabinetry and furniture for any room in your home. As the world's leading manufacturer of built-to-order cabinetry, KraftMaid leads the way in offering an almost endless selection of door styles, finishes, functional storage solutions and decorative options that allow you to customize your home to suit your style – and your lifestyle – with cabinetry “made just for you.”

KraftMaid has helped more consumers create the kitchen of their dreams than any other cabinet manufacturer in the world by offering the look of customized cabinetry without a custom price or custom lead times. Their cabinets are 100% built-to-order. This means that each and every cabinet is built specifically for the individual consumer and built to their specifications. With KraftMaid, you choose your door style, wood species, cabinet size and cabinet construction as well as all of the storage solutions and decorative enhancements that make your kitchen, bath and home office function for the way your family lives today.

Merillat.

Make perfect sense.

Merillat has provided quality cabinetry since 1946. With eight manufacturing plants throughout the US, Merillat has grown to become one of the nation's largest cabinet manufacturers and the number one builder-preferred cabinet.

Merillat is also an energy-conscious organization, committed to recycling, reducing greenhouse gases and the implementation of an environmental management system.

Merillat designers travel the world in search of the latest trends and design styles. They offer three distinct lines of cabinetry at a variety of price levels to provide consumers custom-quality looks and function without a custom-sized price. Merillat cabinetry includes the semi-custom Masterpiece line, the quality and good looks of Classic and Essentials, featuring quality construction at affordable prices.

Merillat is the number one builder-selected cabinet because the quality is second to none. Make the choice that builders make, and choose Merillat for your home.

Bertch™

Looking for a different, more upscale look? Bertch Custom has it all, be it antiquing, crackling, distressing, color rubbing or other special effects. Bertch has been creating high quality cabinets and accessories for more than 30 years. Made in the USA with pride, Bertch focuses on creating high-end products with a definite style. If you can dream it, Bertch Custom can build it!

Don't forget to ask us about Legacy, Bertch's line of semi-custom cabinetry and their line of Marketplace stock cabinetry! Legacy uses an array of styles and modular components to appeal to the dreamer and the realist in all of us. Marketplace cabinetry is the newest division of the Bertch family of products, but the same care and craftsmanship is put into making all cabinets that carry the Bertch name.
